To

B. T. Kesavaiengar, Esq., B.A.,
Chief Secretary to the Government of Mysore, Bangalore.

SIR,

Subject:—

I have the honour to state that it is reported that one Venkataramanappa of Yaliyur village, in the Devanahalli Taluk has constructed his house on Khaneshmari No. 71 of the village, inscribing the figure "Ganda bherunda" on the upstairs Parapet wall. The Sub Division Officer, Dodballapur Sub Division solicits instructions whether such constructions may be allowed.

I do not think that "Ganda bherunda" figure can be inscribed on any private or public buildings without specified sanction of Government. It may be stated that from the tenor of the Government Order No.1953-2002 P.P.45-22-6 dated 17th October 1922, (printed on page 295 of the Manual of Standing Orders) it appears to be clear that it is the ex-clusive privilege extended only to the case of Palace buildings.

I propose therefore, subject to the approval of Government, issuing orders to the Sub Division Officer not to allow the inscribing of such figure on the construction. As this was a matter of some delicacy and importance, I have thought it fit to solicit specific approval.

The connected file of papers accompanies.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

Vedavyasacharya
